MITZI BICKERS

UNDER SEAL

THE GRAND JURY CHARGES THAT:

Count 1

(Conspiracy to Commit Bribery - 18 U.S.C. § 371)

1. From in or about 2010 to at least until on or about May 22, 2013, the exact dates being unknown, in the Northern District of Georgia and elsewhere, defendant MITZI BICKERS knowingly and willfully conspired, agreed, and had a tacit understanding with Elvin R. Mitchell, Jr., Charles P. Richards, Jr. and others known and unknown to commit violations of the laws of the United States, that is - bribery involving a local government receiving federal funds, in that, BICKERS, an agent of the City of Atlanta, Georgia (a local government), corruptly solicited and demanded for her benefit and accepted and agreed to accept a thing of value from a person with the intent to be influenced and rewarded in connection with any business, transaction, and series of transactions of the City of Atlanta government, involving a thing of value of at least $5,000, in any one-year period where the City of Atlanta government received benefits in excess of $10,000 under a federal program, involving a grant, contract, subsidy, loan, guarantee, insurance and other form, in violation of Title 18, United States Code, Section 666(a)(1)(B).

Object of the Conspiracy

2. As a City of Atlanta employee from in or about February 2010 to on or about May 22, 2013, when she left employment with the City of Atlanta, BICKERS conspired to enrich herself and others by soliciting and accepting payments directly and indirectly from Mitchell and Richards and their companies in exchange for her agreement to represent their businesses and to obtain lucrative City of Atlanta contracts for their companies through bribery.

Background

At all times relevant to this Indictment:

3. Atlanta is the capital and most populous city in Georgia with a metropolitan area population of approximately 5.7 million people. The City of Atlanta is a local government located in the Northern District of Georgia with an operational and enterprise budget of more than $2 billion. In serving its citizens, the City of Atlanta regularly contracts with individuals and businesses to provide public services. City of Atlanta contracts often are valued at millions of dollars or more.

4. In or about 2004, S.B. incorporated the Bickers Group, Inc. as a for-profit corporation. In or about May 2010, BICKERS filed the 2010 Annual Registration for the Bickers Group with the Georgia Secretary of State, listing herself as its Chief Executive Officer (“CEO”), Chief Financial Officer (“CFO”), and Registered Agent. In or about 2014, BICKERS filed an application for Reinstatement of a Georgia For-Profit Corporation, again listing herself as the CEO, CFO, and Registered Agent of the Bickers Group. The Bickers Group focused on political and campaign consulting work.

5. In or about 2006, S.B. incorporated Chateau Land Company, Inc. on behalf of BICKERS. In Georgia Secretary of State filings, Chateau Land Company listed BICKERS as its CFO and Registered Agent. In or about 2010, Chateau Land Company was administratively dissolved.

6. In or about 2007, K.J. incorporated Pirouette Dance Company as a dance and fitness company. In or about 2012, Pirouette Dance Company became Pirouette Companies, LLC, changing its focus from dance and fitness to political consulting and marketing. In or about 2012, BICKERS began to work for Pirouette Companies.

7. In or about 2009, BICKERS participated in Atlanta's mayoral campaign and, after the election, became an employee of the City of Atlanta. From in or about February 2010 to in or about May 22, 2013, BICKERS served as the Director of Human Services for the City of Atlanta. As the City of Atlanta's Director of Human Services, BICKERS earned approximately $50,391 in 2010, $57,986 in 2011, $42,849 in 2012, and $28,046 in 2013, according to her tax returns.

8. Mitchell was the owner and principal of the following construction companies: (a) E.R. Mitchell Company; (b) Cascade Building System, LLC.; (c) E.R. Mitchell Group, Inc.; and (d) EC & WT Construction Company, Inc., d/b/a E.R. Mitchell Construction Co.

9. Richards served as the owner and principal of the following construction companies: (a) C.P. Richards Construction Co., Inc. and (b) C.P. Richards & Associates, Inc.

10. From in or about 2010 to in or about 2015, Mitchell's and Richards' companies actively sought and received lucrative government contracts with the City of Atlanta, including contracts relating to emergency snow and debris removal, sidewalk maintenance and repair, and emergency bridge reconstruction. During this period, the City of Atlanta awarded and paid Mitchell's and Richards' businesses approximately $17 million for government contracts they secured.

The City of Atlanta's Ethics and Procurement Codes

11. The City of Atlanta's Code of Ethics governs the conduct of City of Atlanta officials and employees. Its purpose is "protecting the integrity" of the City of Atlanta government and promoting the public trust by prohibiting conflicts of interest, by requiring certain officials and employees to disclose outside financial relationships and transactions. The City of Atlanta's Ethics Code encourages city officials and employees to act in its best interest and to avoid the appearance of impropriety.

12. According to the City of Atlanta's Code of Ethics § 2-812, no official or employee may participate directly or indirectly through decision making, approval, recommendation or rendering advice in any matter pertaining to any contract or subcontract and any solicitation or proposal or seek to influence the votes or decisions of others with respect thereto when the official or employee knows or with reasonable investigation should know that there is a financial or personal interest possessed by the official or employee or a business in which the person serves as "an officer, director, stockholder, ... partner or employee."

13. According to the City of Atlanta's Code of Ethics § 2-818, "no official or employee shall solicit or accept anything of value, in any form whatsoever, calculated to influence a vote, decision or the exercise of official authority in any manner involving the city."

14. According to the City of Atlanta's Code of Ethics § 2-814(a)(1), certain City of Atlanta officials and employees must disclose all "positions of employment held by the official or employee in any business . . . for all or any portion of the year, including a description of the type of business and the existence and nature of any business done by the employer entity with the city." City of Atlanta's Code of Ethics § 2-814(a)(2), further requires that these officials and employees disclose "[e]ach and every source of income from any business received by such official or employee in excess of $5,000 derived from any single source in the preceding calendar year."

15. The Department of Procurement is responsible for facilitating the procurement of commodities and services for the City of Atlanta. The mission of the Department of Procurement "is to model best practices in public purchasing while promoting equity, fairness, and economic inclusion."

16. According to the City of Atlanta's Procurement Code § 2-1482, any City of Atlanta officer or employee who has a direct or indirect financial interest in any procurement matter, other than by a competitive sealed bid, must disclose the nature of the financial interest to the City of Atlanta's Chief Procurement Officer.

17. According to the City of Atlanta's Procurement Code § 2-1484, it is unethical for any person to offer, give or agree to give any employee or former employee or for any employee or former employee to solicit, demand, accept or agree to accept from another person a gratuity or an offer of employment in connection with any decision, approval, disapproval, recommendation, influencing the content of any specification or procurement standard, rendering of advice, or other matter pertaining to any contract or subcontract or to any solicitation or proposal therefor.

18. According to the City of Atlanta's Procurement Code § 2-1485, it is unethical for a person to be retained or to retain a person to solicit or secure a city contract upon an agreement or understanding for a commission, percentage, brokerage or contingent fee.

19. According to the City of Atlanta's Procurement Code § 2-1487, it is unethical for any employee or former employee willfully to use confidential information for actual or anticipated personal gain or for the actual or anticipated personal gain of any other person.

Manner and Means

20. Beginning in or about 2010, Mitchell and Richards agreed to pay bribes to BICKERS, who was a City of Atlanta employee at the time, to secure City of Atlanta contracts for their businesses. In some instances, Mitchell and Richards referred to the bribes as "up-front money." However, Mitchell and Richards typically paid BICKERS after the City of Atlanta had paid them for construction work performed by their businesses. In exchange for these payments and the promise of these payments, BICKERS agreed to represent Mitchell, Richards, and their companies on matters relating to City of Atlanta contracting - notwithstanding that BICKERS was prohibited from doing so as a City of Atlanta employee. During this period, BICKERS also provided sensitive contracting information to Mitchell and Richards that assisted them in submitting contract bids.

21. In early 2013, BICKERS's financial ties to the Pirouette Companies were exposed publically. Based on this public disclosure, BICKERS amended her 2013 City of Atlanta Financial Disclosure Statement in which she revealed her financial relationship with the Pirouette Companies. On or about May 22, 2013, BICKERS resigned her position with the City of Atlanta.
